Semi in Sought After Enclave

Lifestyle - Positioned a short stroll from the rolling waves at Bronte and Tamarama Beaches, this tired semi-attached home showcases generous room appointments enhanced by classic high ceilings. Standing seconds from bus connections, with excellent local schools and shops within close distances, this popular addressing is one of immense family appeal.

Three large bedrooms, a formal lounge room with cast iron fireplace and a timber kitchen with gas stove adjoining the dining area. Outside a private court-garden capturing northern sun enjoys the shade of leafy greenery and features established garden beds, with the bathroom offering a combined shower and bath.
