Freshly Painted, North Facing Apartment with Parking

Wide picture windows, white interiors and parquetry floors combine to make this well presented apartment a relaxed urban retreat. Further enhanced by a leafy north-easterly outlook, the property also features a sunny balcony opening off the living space. Located on the second floor of the well-kept security building, this city pad is peaceful, private and convenient.

Please note: Inspections may be cancelled if the property is leased prior due to the current booking system of Private Inspections only.
