A superior home in a premium location

Located in a coveted, family-friendly neighbourhood, this sizeable family home with double street frontage enjoys an abundance of natural light and privacy across two levels.

With spacious open plan living and dining and a modern island kitchen, this home captures sweeping leafy views of Sydney Harbour and the bridge. The property also features a freestanding, self-contained studio apartment with kitchenette, lounge and bathroom with independent dual access. The self-contained apartment also has a north facing balcony with district and harbour views.

Ideally situated just a few minutes stroll to Parsley Bay, historic Watsons Bay, spectacular cliff walks and popular sailing clubs as well as close to Sydney's top private schools, parks and public transport.
