Oversized Studio in a Tranquil, Leafy Location with Parking

This well-presented and generously-sized studio apartment is an ideal opportunity for a low-maintenance investment or first home.

The combined open-plan living and bedroom space is east facing, capturing the morning sun, while the modern kitchen and bathroom present a desirable layout, creating an enviable sense of space. This is a chance to create your own private sanctuary.

- Located at the rear of a small boutique block of only four apartments
- East-facing oversized studio
- Own private entrance, plus car space on title
- Air conditioning
- High ceilings and timber floorboards
- Shared laundry room
