Light and Bright One bedroom Unit

Filled with natural light across an easy-care design, this neatly presented apartment offers an ideal place to retreat to. Perfect for professionals traveling to the city for work.

The open lounge and dining arrangement makes for a lifestyle of relaxation, while surrounding glass captures views across to Woolloomooloo, St Mary's Cathedral and the city skyline beyond. Perched on the top floor of a well kept building, the property is set between the upmarket attractions of Woolloomooloo Finger Wharf and the cosmopolitan hub of Macleay Street, with local parklands, the weekend markets and train transport metres away.

Property Features:

Only steps to daily amenities, cafes and shops, bus stop very close by.
